Cantigny Fine Art Festival
Exceptional Art in a Magnificent Setting on Father's Day Weekend

WHAT: Amdur Productions proudly hosts the Eighth Annual Cantigny Fine Art Festival taking place this year over Father's Day weekend. Open to the public, the artwork represented at the Festival is rivaled only by the beauty of the grounds. Nestled underneath a light canopy of honey locust trees in the extraordinary Cantigny Park, the Art Festival showcases the work of 150 juried artists from across the United States. Every genre of artwork, ranging in price from $25 to $2,500, is represented at the Festival with an emphasis on traditional themes.

HIGH-LIGHTS: The Cantigny Fine Art Festival offers guests the opportunity to enjoy and purchase exceptional artwork from masters in the field amidst an incredible backdrop. Live music and fun activities just for kids also take place at the festival. Guests of the Festival can make a day at Cantigny Park over Father's Day weekend by exploring the gardens, visiting the First Division Museum or dining at one of the fine restaurants on the park grounds. Newcomers are encouraged to stop by the Visitors Center Theater to enjoy a 10-minute orientation film that highlights Cantigny's attractions.

At 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, June 20, 2009, guests of the festival are invited to enjoy the sounds of Tenors 3 as they perform a FREE concert on the Parade Field of Cantigny Park.

COST: FREE Admission to festival, gardens and First Division Museum at Cantigny Park
$5 per car to park all day at Cantigny Park
