Young artists shine in the Youth Art Division at Port Clinton Art Festival

Amdur Productions is now accepting applications for the Youth Art Division at the nationally acclaimed Port Clinton Art Festival. Youth artists, ages 6 through 18 years old are invited to showcase their work in a variety of mediums including, painting, drawing, jewelry, ceramics, prints, fiber, sculpture, photographs, glass and mixed media. All artwork featured must be original pieces from the exhibiting artists.

"Young artists who have participated in the Youth Art Division in the past have found it to be a wonderful and uniquely enriching experience," says Amy Amdur, founder of Amdur Productions, one of the nations leading art festival producers. "The festival provides young artists a venue to showcase their artwork to large public audiences at minimal cost. It teaches them about running a business, working towards a goal and also provides the opportunity to discover or strengthen a passion for creating artwork."

Now celebrating its 26th year, the Port Clinton Art Festival will take place in downtown Highland Park Saturday, August 29th and Sunday, August 30th. While more than 250 professional artists have been accepted to participate in the festival through a jury, the Youth Art Division is based on a first come, first served basis. Space is limited.
