PORT CLINTON ART FESTIVAL

2017 Youth Artist Division Information Sheet

- The Youth Art Division is open to youth artists, 6-18 years old. Artists under 13 must be chaperoned by an adult at all times at the festival.
- Two exhibitors may be in one booth if both artists have worked together on the artwork. These artists will receive an extra large booth space (10'X10') as space allows. Participation and booth fees ($75.00) are per artist. Fees may not be split by the two artists. Fees go to help defray the production, advertising and security costs of this event.
- Fees are non-refundable unless space is not available. If a space is not available, the fee will be refunded in full.
- Artists may display & sell original art made completely by the artist only.
- All types of original art may be shown: painting, drawing, jewelry, ceramics, prints, fiber, sculpture, photographs, glass and mixed media.
- Artists are accepted in order of application receipt. Space is limited.
- A Tent Cover and one 6 foot table will be provided. Artists will provide their own set-ups such as additional tables, easels, display boards, chairs, etc. All tables must be covered to the ground with cloth or other material. Spaces are approximately 8' x 5'. Keep your display simple. You don't want the display to distract from your work. Signs and prices should be neatly and clearly written. Please contact Caitlin with any questions on presentation!
- The festival will run rain or shine, August 26 and 27. Artists are expected to stay for entire day on both days: 10am-6pm. If an artist leaves early they will not be allowed to participate in future festivals.
- Artists must check-in on the Saturday morning of the festival, between 8-9am, in the festival office. Official artist badges, festival materials, and parking passes will be distributed also. The designated space for the festival office and other detailed information will be emailed to the Youth Artists 30 days prior to the show date

We look forward to your participation!
