AMDUR PRODUCTIONS INVITES ARTISTS AND ENTHUSIASTS TO ATTEND A FREE "ART SMART: ART FESTIVALS 101" SEMINAR AT THE VALPARAISO PUBLIC LIBRARY APRIL 11

Join Seasoned Industry Leader Amy Amdur of Amdur Productions as She Shares Insights for Breaking into the Business from her 37 Years Producing the Midwest's Top Art Festivals

VALPARAISO, INDIANA (FEBRUARY 2020) – Looking to break into the bustling business of art festivals? Just in time for the upcoming season, Amdur Productions, the company behind the wildly popular Valparaiso Art Festival and more than 20 other renowned events in the Midwest, has announced they will be hosting a free "Art Smart Seminar: Art Festivals 101" Saturday, April 11 at the Valparaiso Public Library, 150 W. Lincoln Way, from 10 a.m.-12 p.m. Open to the public, attendees will have the chance to hear from industry expert Amy Amdur and learn the inside scoop on breaking into the business, excelling at the application process, how to determine which show is the best fit, how to sell art and more. A mock art selection jury will also be offered, giving attendees an inside look at the world of the art fair application processes.

"We are honored to be able to share our experience and expertise with the Valparaiso community developed over 37 years in the business and nearly a thousand festivals produced," said Amy Amdur, President and CEO of Amdur Productions. "We look forward to connecting with and helping returning and prospective artists set the tone for a wildly successful 2020 season and beyond."

Open to the public, attendees will have the chance to hear from the illustrious team on how to best break into selling at art shows, put together a stellar application and maximize sales upon acceptance. Guests will hear from Amdur on everything from how to know which show is right for them to the top sales tips and tricks in the industry.
